Project / Presentation
Grading Rubric

Class: ______________________________

Student Name: ____________________ Date: _______ Topic: ____________________

Web site URL: ____________________________________________________________

- Presentation:
  - Student demonstrated the project had been accomplished (10 points) ....... ____
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________
  - Student spoke clearly and did not read from documentation (10 points) .......
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________
  - Student demonstrated an understanding of the topic (10 points) ............... ____
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________
  - Student answered questions about the project effectively (10 points) .......
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________

- Documentation:
  - Is HTML based and accessible via a Web server as required (10 points) ...
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________
  - How to instructions are complete and accurate (20 points) ........ .......... ____
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________
  - Follows best practices regarding “good HTML” (10 points) ........ ........... ____
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________
  - Follows best practices regarding on-line tutorials (10 points) ............... ____
    Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________

- Presentation & documentation demonstrated high academic standards (10 points) ____
  Instructor comments: ______________________________________________________

- Grade ................................................................. ................................ ____